Tuscan Herb Farfalline

Little butterfly pasta in a creamy, garlicky Tuscan herb sauce, with seared Cajun sausage and wilted spinach.

Serves 2 · 25 min

Ingredients

Sausage & Greens

- 2 links Beyond Sun Sausage, Cajun, frozen
- 1 tbsp olive oil (rosemary garlic preferred)
- 2 cups fresh spinach, packed
- 2 cloves garlic

Pasta & Sauce

- 6 oz farfalline pasta
- 1 tbsp vegan butter (Miyoko's preferred)
- 2 tsp Better Than Bouillon, vegetable
- 2 tbsp Cashew Cream Sauce ✦
- 1–2 tbsp dairy-free Boursin, Garlic & Herb
- 2 cups LivWell Creamy Tuscan Herb sauce

To Finish

- ¼ cup shredded vegan Parmesan
- Garlic salt and black pepper, to taste
- Red pepper flakes (optional)

Method

1. Air fry the sausages straight from frozen at 400°F for 10 minutes. Let them rest for a few minutes, then slice into coins.
2. Meanwhile, bring a pot of salted water to a boil and cook the farfalline until al dente, about 9 minutes. While everything cooks, mince the garlic.
3. Heat the olive oil in a skillet over medium-high heat. Sear the sausage coins until browned, 2–3 minutes per side.
4. Add the spinach to the same pan and stir until mostly wilted. Add the garlic and cook until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Take the pan off the heat.
5. Drain the pasta, leaving about ¼ cup of cooking water in the pot. Add the butter, bouillon, cashew cream, Boursin, and Tuscan herb sauce, and stir until it comes together into a silky sauce.
6. Stir in the Parmesan, garlic salt, pepper, and red pepper flakes if using. Return the pot to the heat for 30 seconds to melt everything together.
7. Fold in the sausage and spinach, and serve: a creamy pasta with a kick!

✦ NOTES ✦

The bouillon and sausage are already salty, so taste before adding garlic salt. The Cajun sausage brings its own kick, so add red pepper flakes only if you want more heat.
